

Personal profile

Dan Stepansky

Company

Czech Geological Survey

Dan Stepansky is Business Development Manager responsible for new Geo-Energy projects at Czech Geological Survey.

His professional background covers primarily business development and project management at international E&P industry. From early 90's until 2011 he held various positions at Petroconsultants/IHSE with focus on opening and developing geological data and software markets throughout Eastern and Southern Europe and the Former Soviet Union. At the international arm of the Czech Republic MND company he was responsible for acquisitions of exploration and production assets in Ukraine in 2012 - 2016.

In recent years Dan has held various executive positions in the Czech public sector. He also gives lectures at the Department of Geological Sciences of the Masaryk University about evaluation and management of international underground resources projects.

Dan Stepansky possesses MSc degree in geology from Masaryk University in Brno.

Contact details

Postal Address

Czech Geological Survey Branch Brno
Leitnerova 22, 658 69 Brno, Czech Republic
Mobile phone: +420 775860022
E-mail dan.stepansky@geology.cz
Homepage <http://www.geology.cz>

Last Updated (Monday, 05 June 2023)